About Cambridge English

Cambridge English Qualifications are in-depth exams that make learning English enjoyable, effective, and rewarding and are a mark of excellence, accepted and trusted by thousands of organisations worldwide.

Equinox's Cambridge English Preparation courses (Blended Learning) are designed to assist students wishing to achieve a higher level of English language learning and accredited assessment through the competencies of reading, use of English, writing, listening, and speaking.

The course draws on the experience of Equinox's founder, Noel Doyle, and teacher Patrick Brennan, who between them have over 35 years teaching English experience to a Director of Studies level.

General English Classes – Blended Learning

For students who need to improve their English but do not want to prepare for the Cambridge.

Equinox offers this course twice a week (1 Hour per class). This course offers physical classes for students living near Carlow and on-line for all other students.

This programme consists of twenty classes over 10 weeks.

About General English Classes

This course is designed especially for teenage students who wish to improve their general English. This 20 hour of skills integrated skills allows you to work on your reading, writing, speaking, and listening while growing your understanding of how English works and extending your vocabulary.

All students on this course will take a placement test at the start so that progress can be recorded. All students will receive an individual report and certificate upon the completion of the program

Equinox also arrange to give each student an initial placement test, FULL Mock exam as well as facilitating students to take an official exam at the end of the course with our partners in Dublin.

This Covers:

- General English
- Academic Support
- Exam Support
- Daily Conversation
